

International Women's Day 2008 Events and Activities

This year's 8th of March marks the 100th anniversary of IWD!

International Women's Day was started by 15,000 women who marched through New York in 1908 demanding better wages, safety and work and the right to vote. IWD is a day all Queensland unions should be actively involved in.

Here are some ways you can participate:
